The screenshot shows the home page of the Grace United Church website. At the top left is the church's logo, a shield with a cross and other symbols, next to the text "Grace United Church". To the right of the logo is the location "Dunnville, Ontario, Canada". Below this is a green navigation bar with white text for "Home", "About Us", "Sermons", "News", "Gallery", "Events", "Location", "Staff", and "More", followed by an RSS icon. The main content area features a large, vibrant stained-glass window depicting a religious scene. Below the window is a white text box with a light green border containing a welcome message. The Haldimand Choralairs is a community choir of approximately sixty voices, soprano, alto, tenor and bass. Formed 53 years ago by George Shippey, the choir has changed over the years and continues today under the direction of Dr. Stillman Matheson. The Choralairs present two different concerts each year: one in the spring and one at Christmas. The concerts are performed in venues ranging from churches to community halls and retirement homes. The choir is open to invitations to sing for co-operative fund-raising and for special events.

Meet Our Staff

Rev. Warner Bloomfield Minister

E-mail Rev. Warner Bloomfield

Warner joined the congregation of Grace United Church in September of 2016, moving, along with his partner Ellie, from Northwestern Ontario, where he served St. Andrew's United Church in Sioux Lookout. Ordained in 2012, he is a graduate of St. Andrew's College in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan.

Ellie and Warner are both voracious readers who also love live theatre. They have two daughters; Abigail, a student at Brock University and Elizabeth who attends McMaster University.

Warner has BAs in History and Dramatic Arts from McMaster and worked for his hometown newspaper for two decades before following his call to ministry.

For Warner faith is best expressed in and through community. Gathering together to worship and learn with those who will support you, challenge you and encourage you so that we all may realize the great potential God sees for all of creation.

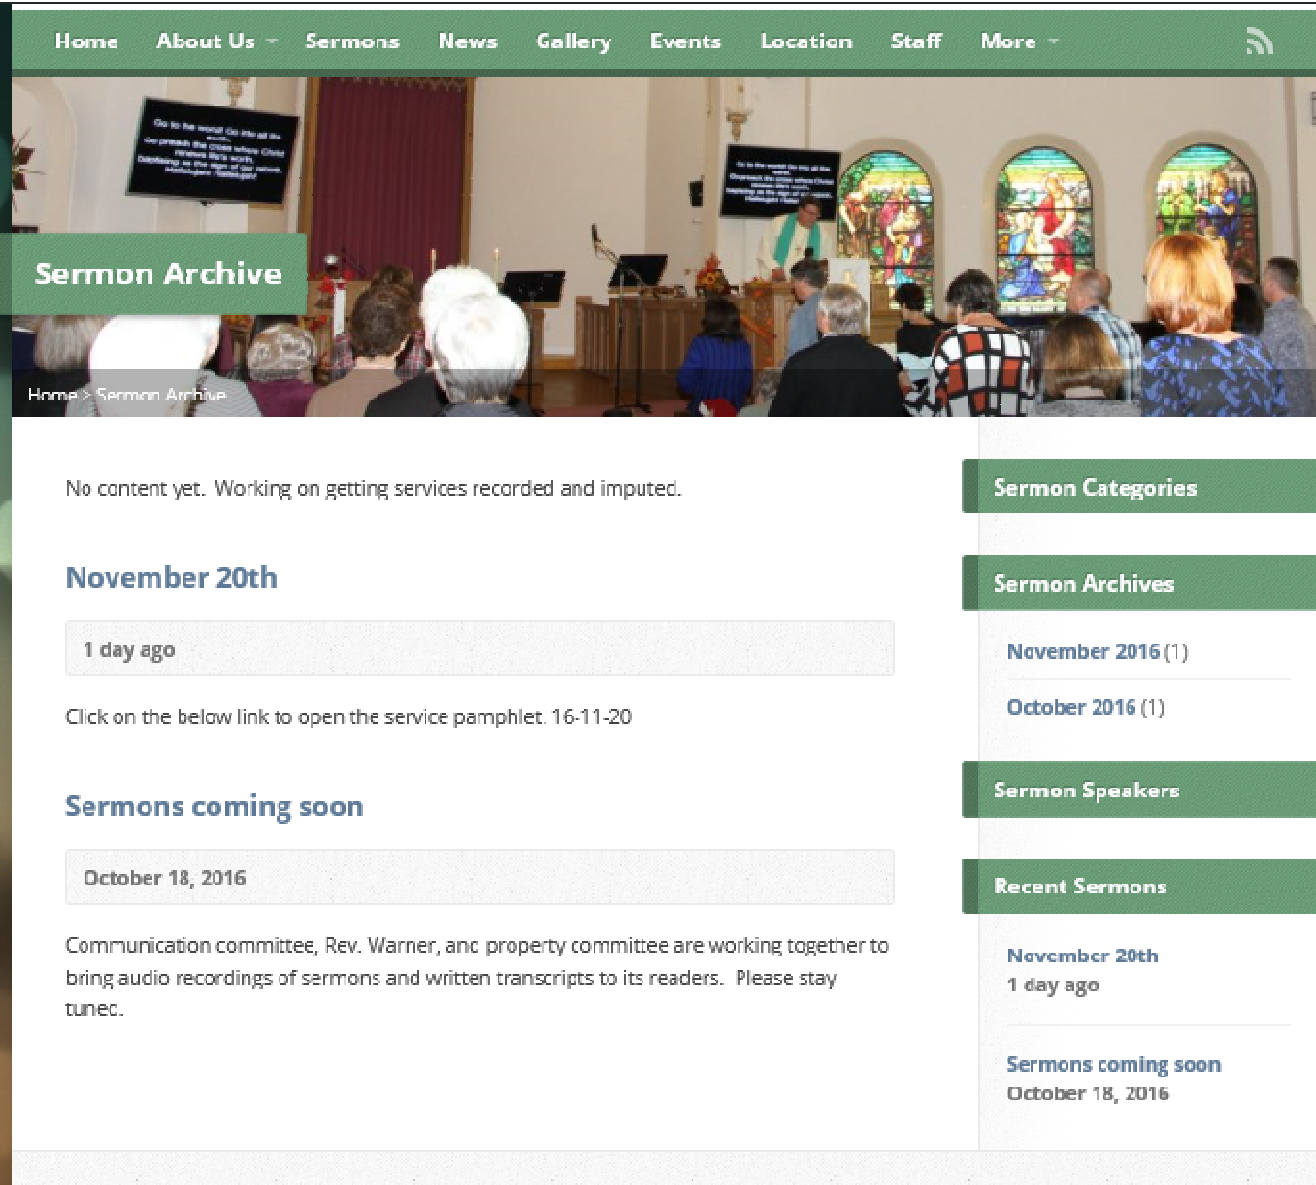

Sharon Fleguel Chair of the Board

E-mail Sharon Fleguel

Grace United was Sharon Fleguel's family church. She was baptized at Grace and has always been an active member in several areas of the work of the church. She enjoys and appreciates the warm, welcoming church family. Sharon is retired and keeps active with grandkids, volunteering, and travelling with her husband, Denis.
